None Hurt In Wednesday Afternoon Crash

AIR FORCE JET CRASHES NEAR KINSTON

MILITARY PERSONNEL SURVEY CRASH SCENE.

SMOLDERING WRECKAGE COVERED LANDSCAPE.

An Air Force jet crashed and burned yesterday (Wednesday) at approximately 2:20 p.m., four miles north of Kinston on Highway 85.

The pilot and co-pilot bailed out safely, and landed two miles from the scene of the crash. The two pilots came down on opposite sides of the highway, with only one narrowly missing a house under construction. The pilot's chute was tangled in the chimney of the house, but he landed safely in the front yard.

The pilots were carried to the Mizzell Memorial Hospital in Opp by the Opp Rescue Squad, but were found to be unhurt, and were returned to the scene of the crash.

Romaine Jennings, of Kinston, reported that she heard two explosions, looked up, saw the plane falling, and the pilots coming down.

Velma Taylor, who lives only approximately 500 yards from the point of impact, said "I saw the plane on fire in the air, and I heard two loud 'pops' and when it hit the ground there was another large pop."

Jasper Thomason, a farmer who lives approximately one mile from the scene of the crash, reported, "I was sitting in the house and heard something I thought something had fallen on the house. An instant later, I heard something again and ran outside and saw two parachutes coming down. About that time I heard a loud explosion, I guess that was when it hit the ground."

The Army officials at the scene expressed gratitude to the many civilians who helped following the crash.

Prisoner With No License In Accident

Elba police investigated an accident Wednesday afternoon of this week. The wreck in of Rt. 5, Elba and James Fabris, an inmate at Camp Elba, who was driving a state truck. Elba officials charged Fabris with driving without a license when he couldn't produce the special license issued to state prisoners. Later a routine check in Montgomery turned up information that the inmate was driving with his license revoked.

The accident occurred on the Troy Highway, inside the Elba City Limits. Police reports indicate Fabris was turning around in the highway when the accident occurred. Damage to Free's 1973 Plymouth was estimated at $600 and damage to the '63 Ford state truck was estimated at $50.

BOYD MURPREE HAS RESIGNED FROM GUNTER-DUNN

Mr. Boyd Murpree announced this week he has resigned his position as manager of the local Gunter-Dunn store and will enter business for himself selling appliances. Murpree has served five and a half years as manager of the Elba store.

He will open July 1st at his new location at 831 North Troy Highway.

Group Meeting Today County Jail Escape Is Short-Lived

The Coffee County Jail experienced another break-out last Thursday evening at 6:02 p.m. when two prisoners overpowered the jailer and one of the prisoners managed to escape the building for a short time.

Officials gave the following report of the incident: Jerome Merritt and Larry Myles were being transferred back to their cell after taking a shower when they overpowered Mr. Dan Jackson and Merritt ran out the back door, scaled the chain link fence and ran down the levee toward the railroad trestle.

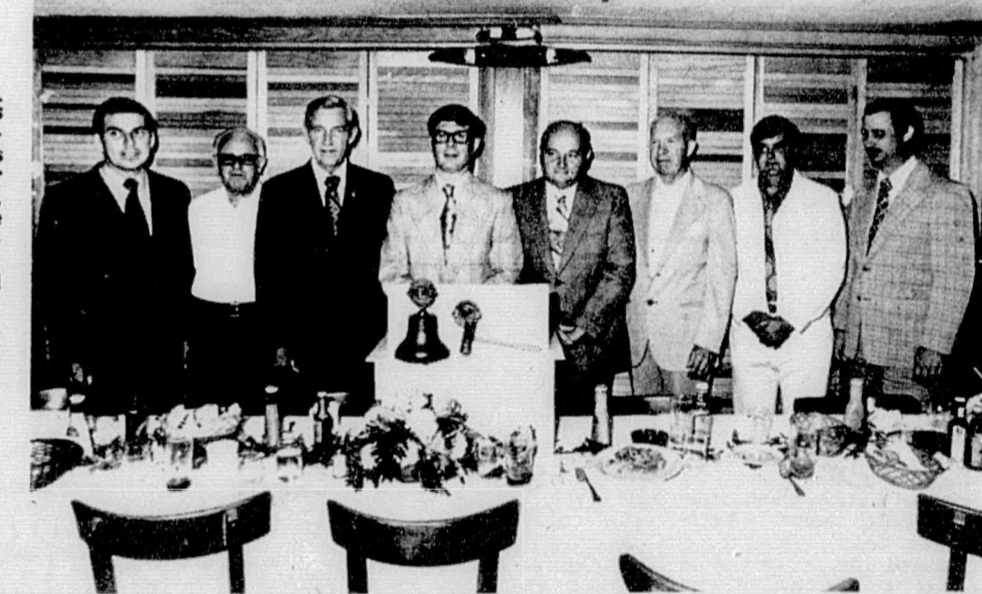

Myles was prevented from escaping when the jailer grabbed his pistol and held Myles and others at bay by shooting over their head. Reports are that the other prisoners locked themselves into a back call in their frantic efforts to avoid the hot lead.

Elba Policeman Andy Garrow captured Merritt at 6:37 p.m. when he attempted to swim Pea River at the trestle. He was in the water when Garrow called out to him and reports are that Merritt agreed to return if Garrow would promise not to shoot.

There were no injuries in the aborted escape. Early reports circulated Elba that the jailer had been shot, but Sheriff Lee Scott, age 24, of Enterprise was driving a '69 Dodge that was totaled when he ran off the road and hit a tree. He suffered cuts and bruises.

Anne Hardeen Brabham, age 43, of Union Springs was the driver of a '69 Dodge also involved in the wreck. She was not injured and her car suffered minor damages.

Trooper Whitworth stated that both cars were trying to pass another car when the accident occurred.

Elba Lion's Club Installs New Slate Of Officers

The Elba Lion's Club installed new officers for the coming year in activities Monday night. The club will be headed by Bob Robertson as President. Officers were installed by Tom Casaday of Enterprise. Casaday is Coffee County Extension Agent and an active Lion, having served in a number of offices, including that of District Governor.

Casaday presents Past President's Pin to Haggitt.

Driver Unhurt In Turnover

A refrigerated truck overturned Monday afternoon on Highway 134, just west of the Community. The truck was out of Mobile and was fully loaded with prepared frozen sandwiches. The sandwiches are sold in grocery stores.

Driver of the truck was not injured. A resident of Mobile, he told THE ELBA CLIPPER that he had been traveling that road since last fall and this was the first accident he had ever had in his life.

A wrecker from Enterprise attempted to right the truck but had to call for help from Chris Cox of Elba. Cox hooked his large wrecker to the truck and it was all over in a short time.

Trooper R. W. Whitworth investigated the accident.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

LI. Governor Jere Beasley has recommended a $304 million bond issue to be used as capital outlay for education below the senior college level. I admit to a lack of knowledge of the need or the exact plans for the money, but my first impression is NO. We have a huge surplus of funds in the Education Trust Fund now and these should be used wisely before borrowing more money. Also, if we turn loose that much money, there is bound to be cases where the funds are misused for impractical purposes "because it is our share." If we do spend a lot of money on new school buildings, please let it be in the area the students will be attending school. The number of school age children is and has been for several years dropping. With this in mind some school plants that are now crowded will soon be large enough without new fancy offices, etc. This is not a quarrel with Beasley and I reserve the right to change my mind when I understand the situation!

Reddy and I were guests at the annual Lions Club installation of new officers Monday night at Holly's Restaurant. These folks are all friends and are continuously kidding me about something. County Agent Tom Casaday installed the new officers and sitting across from us got a special thrill out of John and son, Jimmy Holly's special joke just for me. As always, when the food is being served, it begins at the other end of the table from me and Monday night was no exception. As John heard me grumbling about it, he returned to the kitchen where his son Jimmy (our state representative) had taken over the cooking of the steaks and relayed the information to the kitchen staff. Jimmy (or someone) quickly came up with a left-over chicken wing and I was properly served with the cold chicken on a small saucer and told to enjoy my meal! I finally got a steak, the very last person in the crowded room. Wanting to give credit where credit was due, I thanked my new pastor, Ed Henne, for praying for me and got an answer that sounded something like, "I was praying that I would get your steak." If I had an inferiority complex, I would have felt thinking "everyone hates me," but instead, I left thinking (wishing) that one day I will walk in and John Holly will treat me just as nicely as he treats his other customers!

The Elba school board will meet in July on July the eighth due to the regular date being just before the holiday. Board members tell us they are well aware of the dissatisfaction of many parents with the schools (nationally a recent survey indicated 40% of the parents unhappy). Board members and school officials have expressed willingness to work with local parents to improve the education in our schools. We have talked with many school folks here and in other cities and states. From these conversations we are convinced that our problems are not unique to Elba. Also we are convinced that none of our problems are unsolvable. They can't be solved overnight, but with work by parents, school officials and the students, the Elba schools can become best in the state and I don't mean do it by pouring a bunch of additional money into the system.

The Elba Ministerial Association has for some years supported a fund for helping individuals and families in Elba or traveling through our area run completely out of money. Limited funds limit the activities of this fund usually for furnishing a nights lodging and an adequate meal. However, presently even this is hard to do, because of the increasing number of calls for help. I have a feeling that the ministers would welcome with open arms any offer to help — either money, food, lodging or clothing. I don't suggest you start shoveling money to this fund without first checking with the preachers because they might consider this their private property. However, there are about as many kids about preachers and money as there are about preachers and fried chickens, so if you feel an urge to help, give a member of the association a call.

Acting County Engineer Eugene Jacobs has asked the County Commissioners for a pick-up truck with a two-way radio for a grass cutting crew. Now wouldn't this be a good time for a commissioner to say, "Here, take my pick-up, we shouldn't have one anyway." Oh well, allow me a few moments of wishful dreaming!

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Mr. Cox:

On June 10, the voters of the State of Alabama gave their overwhelming support to Amendment No. 1. The State of Alabama and we here at the Alabama State Docks owe you a debt of gratitude for your help in the passage of this bond issue. Your cooperation and the support that your newspaper gave us on this measure is deeply appreciated. Without the support you and o-her citizens gave us this measure would not have passed.

We are now at work to finance the program to be financed by this bond issue in order to gain the best possible use of this money. We will see that this money does the best job it can for all Alabama. There are many opportunities before us and we hope that we can have your continued cooperation as we move toward making Alabama's seaport the number one port on the Gulf.

Food Stamp Program Bill Introduced

Monday (June 23rd) and 30 of my colleagues, introduced a comprehensive food stamp bill in the House designed to save at least $2 billion a year, and increase benefits to the truly needy, including the elderly, by 25 percent.

There are 41 separate provisions for reforming the $6.6 billion food stamp program. Some of the highlights include provisions designed to eliminate persons with high incomes from the program, establishment of a minimum age for participation in the program, a work requirement for able-bodied recipients with no children under six, a prohibition on eligibility for those who are voluntarily unemployed — including college students and strikers. The whole food stamp program would be transferred from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, where it belongs.

This would reduce the administrative cost of the program and would allow the Department of Agriculture to devote its attention to agriculture, as it was intended to do, not to feeding welfare recipients. There are also a number of provisions that would cut down on fraud, theft, counterfeiting, and other abuses.

It is obvious that this reform program would cost less than $1,000 percent in only ten years, is out of control, and the program is not serving its original intent — to assist the truly needy in America to meet their basic nutritional needs. In fact, estimates that more than 57 million Americans are eligible for food stamps, with an estimated 21.7 million actually receiving them in the program this month.

Who in his wildest dreams really believes that one out of every four Americans is so poor or undernourished that he or she ought to be eligible for food stamps? Most Americans do not realize that persons making $16,000 a year can be eligible for this welfare program. But they do realize that this program is not free. The taxpayer always has to pay higher taxes for increased welfare benefits.

I have long been appalled at the abuses of the food stamp program and its exponential growth, and have introduced legislation in the past to combat these abuses. The thing that prompted me to introduce this comprehensive bill was the fact that the Department of Agriculture is now introducing in one of the Sunday magazines urging people to take advantage of their "right" to get food stamps even if they are not eligible. This is a year. This rip-off of the public treasury must be stopped.

IN RESPONSE:

The Elba Clipper shares your beliefs about doing private work by city, county or state employees and stands ready to publicize and to criticize any such actions.

Our reader mentioned a specific case and time which makes it easier to check. First, we personally witnessed state road crews cutting the weeds on the roadside and in the drainage ditch. This is on the state highway right-of-way and is done regularly on all state highways.

Next, we checked with City Clerk Jack Prescott and received the following information: Prescott issued a work order for city crews to haul some fill dirt from the oil plant drive. This was to fill pot holes on the right-of-way between the highway and the Miller property. Prescott also stated that the right-of-way between the highway and the Miller property, due to lack of knowledge of the act line between the right-of-way and the private property, was not properly marked. This was done, it was unintentional. Prescott also stated that no one was charged for this particular work, nor does the City do any private work.

The switch to annual sessions should make the legislature more productive. I personally felt that the legislature was not doing its job. The legislature's role in fiscal planning, the need for special sessions should be minimized. The Legislature had three special sessions this year prior to the regular session. Under the new amendment a 105 calendar day limit is placed on regular or annual sessions, and a 30 calendar day limit on special sessions. This total time in sessions each year should be reduced.

Annual meeting provided the legislature with the opportunity for more input in to the overall operation of state government. The backing of legislation which develops in a two year period should be eliminated. Thus, bills may be considered more carefully, and more

Questions and Answers

Q. I am going to apply for supplemental security income. My son, who is 16, is blind. Would he be eligible for payments, too?

A. He may be Supplemental security income payments can be made to a blind or disabled child, or to someone on a child's behalf. The child should apply for payments, or if he is unable to do so, you should apply in his behalf.

Q. I started getting supplemental security income payments last year. Do I have to file an application for these payments every year?

A. No, but social security will review your case to re-determine your eligibility and payment amount. You'll receive a letter from social security telling you when it is time for your redetermination.

Q. I'm getting married this month. My husband and I plan to use a hyphenated combination of both our last names or our married name. Should we both report this change to social security?

A. Yes, especially if you are both employed. Whenever you change the name you use in your employment — because of marriage, divorce, or other reasons — should have it changed on your social security records. You can change your name by filling out a form available at many post offices and at many post offices and employer personnel offices.

Q. I was going through some old papers recently and came across a doctor bill for treatment I received in August 1974. Is it too late to send in a Medicare insurance claim for this bill?

A. It's not too late to submit this bill, but there are time limits for medical insurance claims. For covered services you received between October 1, 1973, and September 30, 1974, your claim must be submitted by December 31, 1975.

To Kiss A Frog

Why the church, you ask? The answer, "To Kiss A Frog." Sound weird? You bet! But Bruce LaRue, in his book, "Ask Me To Dance," quotes Episcopal Priest Wes Seeliger's rewriting of an old story. "Ever feel like a frog? Frogs feel slow, low, ugly, pudgy, dropped, pooped. The feeling comes when you want to be bright but feel dumb. I know because one told me a frog. But he really wasn't a frog. He was a prince who looked and felt like a frog. A man with had put a curse on him and only the kiss of a beautiful maiden could save him. But how many chicks kiss frogs, much less pretty ones? So there he sat, till one day a beautiful maiden grabbed him up and put a big one on him. "Froggy! Froggy! Froggy! Froggy!" she said. ## LIVINGS FAMILY

REUNION PLANNED

FOR JULY 5, 1975

In 1919, Alabama was admitted into the Union. Henry County was established almost immediately. It included what is now Covington, Dale, Pike, Houston, Geneva, Coffee, Bullock, Crenshaw and Barbour counties. Southeast Alabama was a vast wilderness of Pine and Hardwood. The low clay hills and lush green valleys abounded with wild game. The area was also invested with roving bands of Creek Indians. Among the earliest settlers to this area were the men of the Livingstons, Stephens and Stephens, Jr., and their families made the pilgrimage from the Carolinas. They made the long trip by wagon train, bringing all their belongings with them. The Livingstons family settled near Orion in Pike County, and Fine Level in Montgomery County. Some later moved into Condon and Coffee Counties.

The descendants of these brave, adventurous pioneers will gather at the Coffee County Livingstons Family Reunion, Saturday, July 5th to celebrate their heritage. Descendants of the Livingstons family will travel from all across the nation for the event.

The idea for the reunion was Mrs. Ina Earl Livingstons Br- y, a daughter, Mrs. Vivian Starling, Phenix City, four-ty, Mrs. Frances Benton, Troy, Ala., six grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

1975 ALL STAR BALLOT

Baseball fans around the nation have until July 6 to cast their votes on the 1975 Major League Baseball All-Star team.

Fans may vote by going to their favorite drug or grocery store and picking up a computerized ballot. The ballot is free, and it only costs 10¢ to mail it in.

I urge all of you to vote for the player of your choice! Here is how I marked my ballot: "National League," (1b) Steve Garvey, (2b) Joe Morgan, (SS) Tim Lincecum, (3b) Larry Parrish, (OF) Reggie Smith, Lou Brock, Cesar Cedeno, "American League," (1b) Carl Yastrzemski, (C) Bill Freehan, (2b) Rod Carew, (SS) Robin Yount, (3b) Rico Petrocelli, (OF) Bobby Bonds, Reggie Jackson, Amos Otis.

To vote for Larry Parrish, you must write in his name on the bottom of the ballot.

DYL BABE RUTH ALL- STARS CHOSEN

The 1975 Dixie Youth and Babe Ruth League All-Star teams have been chosen, and will be announced tonight (Thursday) following the final game of the season.

The method of picking the DYL All-Star has been explained, but the method of choosing the Babe Ruth squad varies greatly.

All four Babe Ruth coaches pick three players off their teams to play on the All-Star team, while the coach whose team wins the title gets three extra picks. These three players may come from any team.

Personally, I think this method of picking an All-Star team could result in the league not fielding the most competitive squad possible. The major drawback in using this method is that even though a team may not have three players of All-Star caliber, the coach of the team may still put three players on the team.

However, when I used the method

GRASS IS INCREASING IN POPULARITY

With the high price of feed for livestock, many farmers are planting additional pastureland and hayland. It is important to get this grass planted and established before the winter rains, or erosion problems may mean additional erosion and planting next year. Common Bermudagrass and Bahiagrass are the two most common grasses used for grazing. Some of the Coffee County farmers that are planting grass are: Martin McWaters, Cool Springs Community; H. L. Martin, Weeks Community; Martin Montes, County Line Community; and Charles Farris, Battens Cross Roads Community. These farmers are planting their grasses in the amount of cropland. There are many acres of eroding land in Coffee County that need to be planted to grass. Think about this, that grain of soil you save today, may make the difference between happiness and starvation for future generations.

Coastal Bermudagrass is the most common grass in Coffee County used for grazing and hay. This grass must be started from green clipping or sprigs. Many farmers are planting this for hay in odd fields or corners where they cannot cultivate or fence off for pasture. Also quite a few farmers are cutting hay from waterways and field borders anywhere the grass will grow and can be cut and baled.

COFFEE NEWS & CHAT

By Sara E. Hutchinson

We will be glad to have you stop by the Farm Center and notice how much the lawn and shrubbery add to the appearance of the Farm Center. Before too long, I hope that we can have that attractive place out in front identifying the Farm Center.

Those planning to attend from Coffee County are Anita Moulton, Frances P. Phillips, Rex Bradshaw, Tony Jones, Albert Maddox, Debbie Middleton, Tammy Bryan, Louise Watson, Tommy Casaday, Jamie Hudson, Walter Owen, Nolin, Barbara Middleton, Lisa Lowery and Dale Stinson. They have research and extension programs in Brazil, too. I was interested in a paragraph which told about the money being spent. I quote from the article: "The government plan for agricultural research calls for spending $238 million on crop and livestock research and $238 million on extension programs over a three-year period." Over in terms of our money, that is a lot of money. When you think about how far a dollar goes in Brazil, that is a lot of money for research and extension.

FARM CENTER LAWN
The lawn at the Farm Center is very beautiful right now. We have had enough rain, and it has been fertilized and the caretaker is keeping it mowed. A lot of people have asked us the name of the grass, how it was established, etc. This

HOW TO HAVE SAFE HOME CANNED FOODS
Are you canning food safe for your family? Are you sure? How long has it been since you had the pressure canner checked for accuracy? This is the amount of pressure but it is really 10 pounds? This is the amount of pressure needed to destroy the deadly bacteria found in some soils. These bacteria are called Clostridium botulinum. Boiling water in the canner does not destroy these bacteria. If not destroyed, they produce a deadly toxin when in an air-tight container (glass jar). There is no noticeable odor, color or taste change in the food due to this deadly toxin. The symptoms you can develop in about 18-36 hours after eating contaminated food are drowsiness or fatigue, followed by visual disturbance -- double vision, blurred vision and/or drooping of upper eyelids; difficulty in swallowing; aching joints; difficulty in breathing; and muscle weakness or paralysis. These symptoms are caused by the toxin's effect on the nervous system. The County Cooperative Extension Service office located in New Brunswick can check your pressure canner for you. Bring only the lid of your canner for testing. There is no charge. Please call the office, 894-5556, before you come to be sure an agent is in. It takes only a few minutes to test. Be sure to put your name, address, and telephone number on a tag and attach to the lid.

different rates of this material at different times throughout the growing season. One treatment that appears to be effective to me was the two applications of Cyperquat using 3 pounds per application. The fourth treatment at the present time appears to be 2 applications using 1 1/2 pounds of material each time. The material does not affect the peanuts in any way except perhaps for a little chlorosis and spotting. In any case of the plots, the first application was put on the 27th day of May and the second one on June 11. Incidentally, Cyperquat is not presently labeled. Dr. Buchanan is evaluating its effectiveness in his work with nutgrass and also in combination with preplant, incorporated Vam. In many of the plots the nutgrass is 5, 6 and 7 inches tall -- in many cases as tall as the peanuts. It will be able to get some good research results which will be helpful to peanut producers everywhere who have nutgrass problems.

GOOD RESULTS
Rex Bradshaw of the Shiloh community on Route 4, Elba, treated about 50 acres of corn using Sutan and A-train. He told me one night that he had gotten real good weed and grass control in his corn. I plan to see this field next week and do an on-site evaluation of the effectiveness of these materials. Bradshaw had a lot of buffalo grass and fall panicum. Thinking of chemical weed control reminds me that this year had the farmers not used chemicals, we would probably have been up to our waists in weeds and grass. The check plots at the Experiment Station at Headland showed how effective chemicals had been this year in most of the peanut fields. However, I have heard reports of poor control in several instances.
